The personal data provided about you on this proposal form or subsequently, whether in writing or orally, is necessary to perform the contract of insurance and/or to take steps at your request prior to entering into the contract. The Company may process such data to assess risk, underwrite and issue present and future contracts of insurance, collect premiums, assess and respond to your queries, and transfer data to and receive data from other insurance and reinsurance companies to underwrite your contract of insurance. The Company may process your data to carry out due diligence, where necessary, and to prevent, detect, suppress and/or report insurance fraud or any other criminal activity, as required by law. The Company may also process your data to establish, exercise and/or defend itself in legal action, to carry out research and compile statistics, perform actuarial science, and to protect its data systems, thus protecting its legitimate interests.

The transfers of personal data to third parties located outside the EEA and countries of equivalent level of data protection on a regular basis will only be carried out under appropriate safeguards or in emergency cases using a derogation as specified in the GDPR.

However, all final decisions which produce any legal effects on data subjects, including without limitation, the decision on whether to underwrite a risk and issue a contract of insurance, are taken with human intervention.

If you are acquiring a quote or an insurance policy through an insurance broker, such broker may be considered a joint controller.

If a policy is issued, a more detailed Data Protection Notice will be provided in your policy document. It is also available on our website.
